BULLOCH TIMES.

ESTABLISHED 1882.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE
BULLOCH TIMES PUBLISHING COMPANY.
D. B. TURNER, EDITOR AND MANAGER.
SUBSCRIPTION: $1.00 PER YEAR.
Entered as second-class matter March 28, 1902, at the post office at Statesboro, Ga., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.
WEDNESDAY, OCT. 23, 1907.

If you could dig long canals with presidential speeches, that Lakes-to-Gulf waterway might soon be a reality.

That $1,200 preacher who is marrying the $1,200,000 heiress will have a hard time living within his salary.

Soap has been advanced in price. We knew it. Salvation will go off the free list next—cleanliness is next to godliness, you know.

Mayor of Alton, Ill., kissed a thousand babies at a picnic. It is this sort of thing that makes men think twice before they enter politics.

The way things are going, it will soon be a shorter trip, in point of time, to cross the Atlantic than it will be to reach the top floor of a skyscraper.

A Wall street paper says money will be "easy" about the middle of November. Nobody ever heard of it being "easy" about the middle of December.

They are beginning to refer to Secretary Taft as "Big Bill" in many localities. This is generally accepted as an indication that the secretary has caught the popular favor.

According to the statisticians, there are 6,397 different kinds of intoxicating drinks used in the world. And each one probably develops a different kind of headache for the morning after.

A Chicago man who poured kerosene over a rat and then set it on fire was fined $3 the other day. In that town, a man who kills a human being is also running the risk of being fined a small sum.

It may help some for Mr. Bryan to make note of the fact that the cost of a dollar dinner to-day is to the cost of a dollar dinner ten years ago, about as 16 to 1, if given on equally as elaborate lines.

From a southern city comes the dispatch that the president, in speaking to the mayor said, "I am glad the American people call me 'Teddy'." It fills me with pride to have such a term of endearment applied to me."

Just what arguments Prof. Haupt will bring to bear to prove that Solomon was not the wisest man, we are not prepared to say, but we presume the possession of some seven or eleven hundred wives is utilized to make out a prima facie case against him.

One of the best stories ever sent out from Washington is, that a day or two after the departure of President Roosevelt for the Louisiana bear hunt two large bulls visited the White House yards and took a look around them and the monument grounds. It was even reported that they chased a negro up a tree and kept him there all night. This is a verified fact. But no bulls nor any other animals ever dared to take liberties in the White House grounds with Teddy on deck. It is a wise bull that knows his dangers.

Former Senator J. Frank Allee, of Delaware, who is organizing a corporation to fight the powder trust and thus even up scores with the DuPonts, at whose door he lays the blame for ousting him from the United States senate, declares that, "for the presidency there is no other candidate in Delaware but President Roosevelt. The people want him and he cannot help himself. All other candidates are being subordinated to him. He may have decided that he won't take another term, but the American people will decide, if they have not done so already, that he must."

Fairbank's Cocktail.

Too much has been said and written already about the "cocktail" incident of Mr. Fairbank's reception to the president, but the friends of Mr. Fairbank are much exercised over the appearance of an article in a religious paper in which the blame for this affair is put upon the shoulders of an intimate woman friend of the family. Doubtless the story was inspired by some misguided friend who thought thus to shield the vice-president from criticism, not realizing, apparently, that he would be placed, by such an excuse, in a position wholly intolerable to any man and especially so to one of Mr. Fairbank's gallantry. And it is all the more extraordinary as the hospitality of the Fairbanks establishment in Washington is famous throughout official and social circles, where wines are served at their delightful dinners and punch is served at their popular receptions.

The American Drummer.

Valley Bey, of Constantinople, formerly first secretary of the Turkish legation in Washington and who is now engaged in the importation of Turkish tobacco to this country, said recently in an interview, "American business methods command my respect more than any other in the world. The manner in which business is done in America is the wonder of all other peoples. I have had occasion particularly to observe the handling of the tobacco business and while I am told the trust controls many of the big business enterprises, I must say it does it well. The American drummer is a remarkable man. He has a wonderful personality—a magnetism that compels attention. I can hardly say he is shrewd, but he is the most resourceful creature in the world. It is not to be wondered at that European ideas and business methods succumb before the American drummer."

To Establish Parcels Post.

The determination of the Postmaster General to make a vigorous campaign for the establishment of an adequate parcels post and a postal saving system there seems to be no little opposition to the scheme in some quarters, and a keen appreciation of such opposition has hitherto prevented any of Mr. Meyer's predecessors in office from going into the fight. There will be some legal obstacles to overcome, and they will undoubtedly be made the most of by those opposed to the reform, but there is no doubt that they can be overcome if congress really desires it. It is expected that a hue and cry will go up from some short-sighted bankers, from some of the small-town merchants and from the senior senator from New York who, it is expected will protest against any interference with the monopoly of the express companies. Nevertheless, Mr. Meyer is convinced that great advantage will accrue to the public from these reforms and he has the sympathy and support of all truly patriotic citizens in his commendable and progressive campaign.

Our New Hair Vigor

Ayer's Hair Vigor was good, the best that was made. But Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is better. It is the one great specific for falling hair. A new preparation in every way. New bottle. New contents. Ask your druggist to show it to you, "the new kind." Ayer's Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it. Then do as he says. As we now make our new Hair Vigor it does not have the slightest effect upon the color of the hair. You may use it freely for any length of time without fear of changing the color. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff. Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Hard hitters receive hard knocks and must be made to resist them. The man who bought a nameless hammer a year ago probably has a useless hammer to-day, with a battered, chipped and broken face, and a handle that continually comes off.

To get a hammer that will last a lifetime, that never chips or breaks—that never works loose or flies off the handle—that drives straight and true—you must ask for a Keen Kutter Hammer.

KEEN KUTTER Tools and Cutlery from a can-opener to a cross-cut saw—from a tack-hammer to a sledge, are as carefully made, tempered and tested as the finest surgical instruments.

Keen Kutter Tools include Saws, Chisels, Bits, Drills, Gimlets, Axes, Planes, Hammers, Hatchets, Axes, Drawing-knives, Screw-drivers, Files, Pliers, Glass-cutters, Ice-picks, Lawn-mowers. Also a full line of Scissors and Shears, Pocket-knives and Table Cutlery.

Keen Kutter Tools have been sold for nearly 40 years under this mark and motto: "The Resilience of Quality Remains Long After the Price is Forgotten."—E. C. Simmons.

To those who are interested in Statesboro Lyceum Course:

The undersigned, who have made a contract with the Lyceum Bureau, based on the subscription for season tickets by you for the coming season, beg to advise that the first attraction will be given in the auditorium here on the evening of Oct. 30th, said attraction being the McIntire-Sheridan Company. This company comes to us well recommended, and we feel sure that you will be well pleased with same. There will be a number of circulars advertising this attraction distributed through the city, and we are not writing this letter to advertise it, but wish to lay before you the situation as regards the course here this season.

We hold subscriptions for season tickets amounting to nearly four hundred dollars, and we have closed a contract for four hundred dollars' worth of attractions. You who have subscribed for season tickets will be called on in a few days, and the tickets will be presented and the full price for the season will be collected then. You will then be entitled to attend all the attractions that will be given here during the season, and we guarantee five, costing us, as per contract, four hundred dollars. Hereafter, or for the last two seasons, a few have been called upon to make good all deficiency in receipts, but under present arrangements no one will be called on to pay more than the price of season tickets, and all are equally interested.

It is expressly understood that no one here is to make anything out of the course, and all door receipts are to be used in paying for extra attractions, which the Bureau can furnish us during the season, and same will be arranged for as soon as enough door receipts are in sight to pay for same. Thus you see that, by taking an interest and taking up our course, you will be working for extra attractions, which will cost you nothing. Now, as no one here will make anything out of the course, and a strict no-

WILL STAND TRIAL.

Has No Recollection of Crime of Which He is Charged.

ATLANTA, Oct. 18.—Jonathan M. Beard, 40 years old, was a prisoner in the police station to-day on his way from Milledgeville to Gainesville, where he goes to stand trial for the murder of W. O. Hammond near that place three years ago.

A short time after the tragedy was committed he was declared insane and sent to Milledgeville, where he has remained for two and a half years. He is now recovered and goes back to stand trial. He says he remembers nothing whatever of the circumstances of the tragedy and did not know he had killed Hammond until a short time ago, when his mind had cleared and he received a letter from his father telling him of the circumstances.

ANOTHER CITY TICKET.

Latest Suggestion Contains Many New Names.

A ticket for mayor and council presented to the TIMES for publication, contains the names of an aggregation of business men whose sagacity in business affairs would ensure a successful administration if elected. The party who supplied the list was positive in his statement that the election of his ticket named would mean a business administration, and no one can doubt it who has any knowledge of the gentlemen named: For mayor, J. F. Brannen; for councilmen, J. L. Coleman, W. C. Parker, J. A. McDougald, J. R. Brannen and W. S. Preterious.

A study of the ticket would satisfy any voter of its worth. Every man mentioned is successful in business, and with sufficient experience in handling public affairs to insure a wise management of the city's business. These gentlemen are in no sense candidates, and this publication will be news to them. They probably would prefer not to serve, but, if elected, we believe they could be counted upon to discharge their duties.

Retray.

An average amount of criminal business will come up, among the most important cases being that against Theodore Kositch, the Russian, for the murder of his fellow countryman, Nicholas Kaptyuch, here during the summer. Inasmuch as neither Kositch nor either of the witnesses speak English, unusual interest attaches to the trial. An interpreter will be employed in the case to aid Mr. Friedman, who acted in that capacity at the preliminary trial. Kositch, who was in prison in jail for several months after the murder, is now perfectly rational and admits the killing of Kaptyuch.

On account of recent legislation the firm of Williams & Grice, Savannah, is forced to discontinue their present line of business January 1st, 1908. Our patrons in Bulloch county, will take notice that all amounts due us must be paid at once. We have employed Mr. M. M. Donaldson, of Statesboro, to look after collections for us in Bulloch county, beginning October 1st. He will see you about your accounts at that time, and accept a prompt settlement, either by cash or short-term note. Please spare him the trouble of a second call very truly,
